14 Villages in which Vritti was granted to the Brahmin

Dandadan Dofs got some Villages as Inam for the maintenance of the Chatram, Tanks to be built by him. He was authorized to appropriate for his use any income that might remain after the charges for charities were met. The agraharam was also a part of the charity, I believe. At the Inam settlement 4 Villages were settled as Dharmadaya and Devadaya and the 3 pensioned. The latter were not enfranchised. They form in effect the Village in which Vritti to Brahmins were assigned as alleged (File No. 631 of 1903-04)

The Brahmins pray that their Vritti may be restored. The prayer is reasonable if the agraharam should have been referred to in the original Sanad or Nirupa.

Before, however, we can settle this matter this

18) Pet^rs represent 4 "agraharees" who benefited out the revenues of the 6 villages granted to Damodardas for (a) maintaining Chatrum (b) maintaining temples and (c) maintaining brahmans, the purpose going to grantee's personal benefit. The grantee's division of the villages or rather earmarking their revenues for these several purposes (a) (b) (c) was recognised in the Settlement of 1871, Bodmuddur and Biragonhalli being recognised as personal inams, subject to maintenance of brahmans. The reasons for this arrangement and for not enfranchising these personal inams are set forth in the Settlement registers. In 1897, the alienations of these villages to the 9 brahmans (who were being paid in Cash) by representatives of original grantee in 1879, were declared by Govt to be invalid and the Dy Comr was directed to take action in the matter of Vritti lands are untenable. But inasmuch as one of the main objects of the original grant to Damodar-das was the maintenance of Brahmans and the present management of the two villages the revenues of which were earmarked for the said purpose, vests in Govt beginning with 1901-02, it is a qestion for consideration whether the legal heirs of the original Vrittidars should not be paid A Sum more or less equal to what they were getting at the time of the Inam Settlement from 1901-02.

2) The average annual revenues of Dodmakur and Biragonahally Amounted to Rs 316-6-9 according to the Inam registers. There were nine Original Vrittidars.

The Settlement of the Case grant, if decided upon, will have to be made after local enquiry as to the competence of the claimants to the original Vrittidars.

23) The original Sanad contemplated a combined Inam Sevadaya, Dharmadaya, Aprahar and personal and the grantee was at liberty to apportion the Inam for the various purposes. This was accordingly done. Certain temples were built and a chatra was established and a number of Brahmans were given an annual contribution for Srega Prarthana.

This apportionment was recognized at the Inam Settlement in 1871 when two of the villages were settled as Seva dayas and two as Dharmadayas and two personal (Aprahar unenfranchised) Subsequently in 1879 the representatives of the original grantee made over to the Vrittidars not only the villages of Dodmuttkeri and Tirthakeri settled as personal but also the villages of Bendkeri (Dharmadaya) and Mangalakeri a hamlet of Muttkeri (Dharmadaya) in lieu of the money commutation in the year of 1879

Govt. considered the alienation often hates two villages and declared it to be invalid and resumed the villages. The Mysore Dept. is not concerned with this order and so far as this is ~~concerned~~ the petitioners do not appear to have any valid grievance

I agree

The case appears to be somewhat different as regards the two villages of Doddmethur and Bijjenhalli which have been divided into 9 shares. It seems to make very little difference whether the shareholders receive a money contribution from those villages or are allowed in actual possession of the shares. The former condition of affairs is spoken to by the Inam Settlement records. Subsequently in 1827 the representatives of the grantee elected to place them in actual possession of the lands in lieu of money contribution, it cannot rightly be termed as unauthorized alienation.

There have also been subsequently resumed - vide G.O. of 31.12.04 (No. to be cited hereafter) WM 2.2.20.

The records do not

I reserve my opinion upon this till it comes up to me in the dept. to deal with it.

that all these Vrittis were in their own alienated by the Vrittidars. The only condition that has to be fulfilled is that the Inams should be alienated only to Brahmans. There is evidence to show that two Vrittis were alienated to Hanseni Sali and so far as they are concerned there is nothing to prevent the Inam tenure being cancelled. As regards the remaining Vrittis, they appear to have a right to enjoy the Jari Inam so far as their respective shares are concerned.

The ryots or their eligible alienees

But the villages themselves have been completely resumed. (Vide G.O. D. 31-12-04).

The villages were Resumed taken into Govt management owing to the action of a majority of Vrittidars in alienating their vrithi to others than Brahmins; but it is not clear from the D.C's letter whether the petrs who have now applied for payment of the money grants being continued, have also alienated their shares.

The petrs. are however, entitled to the payment of the money grants as per para. 3 of the D.C's letter referred to above.

Sir,

With reference to your Official Memorandum No.2062/M.F. 474-10-2 dated 5th April 1911 forwarding for report a petition from Belatur Srinivasaiengar and other Vrittidars of certain Sarvamanyam Inam villages belonging to Damodar Das Sait's charities in the Kunigal Taluk, praying that orders may be passed for the payment of the arrears of their Vritti amount which has not been disbursed to them ever since the said charities were taken under Government management, I have the honor to state as follows:-

(2) Out of Bandihalli and 5 other villages granted as Sarvamanyam Inam to the late Damodar Doss Sait of Mysore by His Highness the late Maharaja Krishnaraja Wodeyar Bahdur III to be utilised for charitable purposes, the four villages of Dodmathur, Beeragonahalli, Bolenahalli, and Thangatchalli appear to have been made over to nine Brahmins of Seringapatam along with nine houses, for maintenance and Shreya Prarthana, in fulfilment of the terms of the Sannad granted to the former by His late Highness.

(3) From the statements of the petitioners made before the Amildar of Kunigal on 11th May 1908, it is found that from the late Damodar Doss Sait, during his lifetime, and from his descendants, for some time afterwards, they continued to receive regularly a cash allowance of Rs.52-5-10 each per annum, being the 1/9th portion of the net annual income of the villages in question, that subsequently, on 15th December 1879, Jamuna Royee, grand-daughter of Damodar Doss Sait and Subhadra Royee, wife of ~~Govinda~~ Girdhara Doss Sait, the brother of Damodar Doss, commuted the said cash allowance into land Inam, by the assignment to them of the villages of Dodmutkur, Beeragonahalli, Bolenhalli, and Thangatchalli and that Registered gift deeds are executed in favour of them to the above effect. It is also stated that the income of the said villages was being received by them through their agent Bandihalli Venkata Narnappa till the year 1893 and ~~[illegible]~~ afterwards by one Husain Sabi and his son Abdul Khadir Sabi till the year 1901-02. They further state that they have not received their dues since 1901-02 and that they are the nearest claimants to the said Vrittis of their forefathers. Gift deeds referred to above are produced by Pelatur Srinivasaiengar, Ammannamma, and Raja Roya and the petitioner Krishna Sastry has not produced any.

(4) From the previous records, however, it is apparent that many of the said Vrittis, which were situated in the Dodmatkur and Beeragonahalli villages, classed as personal Inam at the time of the Inam Settlement, were unauthorisedly alienated so long back as 1896 by certain Vrittidars in favour of one Nittur Hussain Sabi, through sale, mortgage etc. This alienation having, in course of time, come to the notice of the local authorities, the then Deputy Commissioner ordered on 13th December 1901, that the wickedness of the Vrittidars in selling lands granted to them for Shreya Prarthana as intended by the late Maharaja Krishnaraja Wodeyar, disentitled them to all consideration. In accordance with the above order, the two villages were resumed to Government in anticipation of Government sanction which was subsequently accorded and have ever since become Government kandayam villages. I may further state that the other villages of Bandihalli, Chikka Mutkur, Bolenahalli and Lakkasettipura have also been under Government management in accordance with Government order No.720-1/Mus.M.74-93 dated 17th December 1897.

This grant is of a mixed character, which can well be gleaned from the two documents quoted from in column 11. Along with it 5 other villages were also alienated by His Highness the Maharajah, for support of a Chattram at Bandihalli, & for certain services in a new temple to be built in the same village, and also for founding an Agrahar for the support of Brahmins. The grant authorizes the grantee to appropriate the remainder if any, for his personal benefit. The 1st document in Column 11 can only be properly construed in connection with the 2nd Niroop to the Amildar, in which the objects of the grant are detailed. But it is not there stated which of the villages are for religious & Charitable purposes, and which are of a personal nature.

2. The objects of the grant are fully realized. The grantee has built a fine temple & a Chattram at Bandihally. The services specified in column 8 are performed in the former,

in the former, and in the latter fed gratis. The Agrahar is in S consisting of nine Vrittees. The cost of the respective Establishments are exhibited in an Extract from the Inamdars Jasdik P in Column 14.

3 Instead of putting the revenues of the six Villa-ges in a lump, and apportioning them for the several kinds of Charatees, it appears by the present arrangement that this village, Bolenahalli, Lakshmipura & Chikamutakoor
are dedicated for the religions and Charitable purposes detailed in the said Jasdik book,
and Doddamatakoor & Beeragonahalli
are allotted to Brahmins for the Agrahar.
Under the circumstances, I am of opinion that the former 4 villages should be treated as religious & charitable grants, and the two latter as personal, under Rule VI and its clauses. This procedure is preferable to retaining the mixture of the 3 kinds in every village.

4. All the items of revenue are expressly alienated in the Sannad, ~~excepting~~ excepting Sand-
-dal. Toddy and Forests are also included in the

the items granted.

5. Copies of the Sannad are enclosed in the State-ment, duly authenticated. The powers of alienation are also conferred upon the grantee in the body of the grant, but are omitted in the concluding part of the same written by his Highness the Maharajah himself.

6 The Chuttram requires certain repairs and its roofs should be mended. The agent of the grantee has been duly warned to put it all right in the course of the next year. The Agent is Kassiron, who holds a general power of attorney, countersigned by the Notary Public of Madras. A copy is filed with the Statement.

7. To be continued, so long as the Services in the Temples & Chatrum are performed free of rent.

(Signed) [illegible]
Assistant.

The Inam Commissioner's attention is respectfully invited to the above statement showing at a glance the names of the 6 villages forming the grant, their several valuations & how they are at present held and appropriated according to the Inamdar (Vrijalal Das') representation made before the Assistant.

Without disturbing the existing state of things, Mr. Narasimhingar recommends that the villages of Doddamuttoor and Beraganahally should be confirmed as personal subject to the payment of a ~~Sicca~~ Quit

Rent mentioned in the respective registers.

The Samad produced makes the grant is wholly personal although it says in the body that the grantee requested for an Inam as an ~~endowment~~ Endowment for certain religious & Charitable institutions he was then contemplating to establish. ~~the~~ The Sirosp to the Amildar, which the Assistant justly observes should be taken into consideration to interpret the character of the grant recognizes the object of the grant such as those mentioned in the Jasdik Patti. I therefore recommend that such of the Villages as have been set a part for religious and Charitable institutions should be confirmed free of tax on the Service tenure. The is portion of the grant appropriated for the personal benefit of the grantee should be confirmed on a Quit Rent in the village of Bandihalli. But it will appear from the Amildars' arzi No 75 of 2nd June 1871 and its enclosures that according to the testament of the grantee, the portion kept as personal was also alienated for the efficient up-keep of the charitable insti-

gr self should be confirmed &
-med free of tax reserving to Government, right of resumption in default of the
-mance of the Conditions of the several descri
of charity, to which the revenues of the villages c:o forming the grant, have been set a part by the grantee. In para 3 of his remarks in c: Column 19, Mr Narasimiyengar recommends that the villages of Doddamuttur & Biragana
-halli should be confirmed as personal on a Quit Rent as a personal grant, the c: reason being that they are allotted for the support of the agrahar Brahmins. If the above mentioned villages are confirmed as personal, the question is in whose name is the Title Deed to be made out for them, whether in the name of the grantee's son, or the Brahmins to whom their revenu are paid by him retaining the village in his exclusive management. Mr Narasim
-iyengar recommends that the Inam c:
should be enfranchised and Confirmed to Vrijlal Das the grantee's son, and that the Agrahar Brahmins' Names should be shown in Column 15. If this is done, c:

Vir

Virjalal Dass may cease to render the charity claiming the villages in question as partly personal and thereby jeopardise the interests of the Agrahar Vrittidars. If the villages are confirmed to the Brahmins and Title Deed made out in their name, they can claim exclusive possession and the management of Virjalal Dass would come to a termination. Under these circumstances I recommend that the villages comprising the Inam be confirmed to Virjalal Dass free of tax specifying the object for which they were granted in column 8 & 15 with a warning that they would be resumed by Government, if any of the conditions therein stipulated for, are not performed.

If it is insisted that the portion of the grant reserved for personal benefit should be charged with a quit Rent, all that I can say is, that a portion of this village's Bandalahally of a valuation equal to Rs. 162-3-2 which according to the Jasdik Patty, is reserved for personal benefit may be enfranchised if it is agreed to by Virjalal Dass. But I consider that the portion set a part for the private benefit of the grantee may also be treated as for trustee of the religious & charitable ins

for the support of which the grant was intended.
I therefore recommend that this village may be confirmed free of tax.

[Illegible] B. Gopaliah
21-8-71

The proof quoted in column 11 mentions that the boundaries should be marked by stones. If those boundaries remain unaltered, they may be adopted & the extent mentioned in column 4 may be confirmed.

There is no Sayer revenue at present
and it can be resumed for Government, without payment of compensation. The abkarri now resumed without compensation
by the Deputy Superintendent on the intro-duction of the Sadar Distillery System into the province. The revenue derived from toddy is still allowed to be collected, hereafter the Inamdar can derive no
revenue from his date trees by renting them to the Government contractor or by drawing the liquor for the manufacture of jaggery.
The Inamdar should not hereafter vend toddy

Pas liquor without a license.

I do not recommend any compensation to be given as we do not actually prohibit him from deriving any revenue from his date trees.- Under the head of Sendi or toddy, the revenue alienated in the Sannad is Rs. 42-14-7 in the present villages. The Inamdar can enjoy the produce of his jungle, without any license or payment of Seigniorage - including over the Teak, excepting only the Sandal, which is reserved to the State, as in terms of the Sannad. The Inamdar cannot also levy fines for the ~~offences~~ offences of cattle-tresspass, as it is penal act and cognizable under the present rules by the Officers of Government. The Irrigation cess if levied should be spent upon the Inamdar's tanks ——— Dated 8. Jogalial. Spl. Asst.

I concur with the special Assistant in all his remarks made in his revision of this case. The villages will be confirmed free of tax subject to all the conditions of the grant being fulfilled as herein set forth.

The items of Sayer & Abkary are reserved but the Date trees may be leased

This inam is utilized for the charity mentioned in Column 8.

This is one of 6 Inam Villages, granted by the late Maharaja, for Charitable, religious and personal purposes, as per sanads quoted from in Column 11. Four villages including this one are reserved for religious and charitable undertakings, while the remaining two villages are dedicated to the support of an agrahar established at Srirangapatam by the grantee. The sanad vests in the grantee the power of alienation, but it is not mentioned in His Highness' own handwriting. Authenticated copies of the sanads are attached to the statement of Bandihalli.

2 All sources of revenue, including Sayer Abkari etc are alienated, with the single exception of Sandal.

3. There was a boundary dispute between this village and the neighbouring Inam village of Madappanahalli. The extent of the was admittedly in the possession of of this Village. The godidars of Mad -halli were referred to a regular Suit, was never filed, though full time was them. See remarks in the Register of Madappanahalli, para 5. The said land is included in the Pymaish in Columns 3, 4 &

4. My reasons for putting this Village as Dharmadaya will be apparent from the Register of Bandihalli.

5. To be confirmed, so long as the charities specified in Column 8 are Conducted free of rent.

This is one of 6 Villages alienated by His Highness under the same grant. The object of the grant was to facilitate religious and Charitable purposes and also for personal benefit. The grantee has divided the 6 Villages into 3 classes as per registers of Bundihally, Bdenahally, Chickamalkoorn and Laekasettipoora, which are religious and Charitable. This Village and Beeragonahully are reserved for the livelihood of the Bramhins named under Col: 15, + living at Seerangapatam. In the registers above quoted, I have given my reasons for disposing of them as religious and Charitable, while this Village should be held to be personal, in Conjunction with Beeragonahally I have registered these 2 as personal in Consequence.

2. All items are alienated save Sandal. The body of the Sannad Confers powers of alienation on the grantee, but they are omitted in the Concluding part written by His Highness. — This Case therefore falls under Inam Commissioner's Docket no: 64/ dated 20th July 1870. — Copies of the Sannad and Nirooh are filed with the Statement of Bandihally duly authenticated — For the Last personal Village See ~~Reverse~~. The nature of this grant is fully entered into in the Register of Bandihally which was also alienated under the same Sanad. From the words hereditary and alienable, used in the Sanad, I was at first inclined to consider the Inam as personal, but on reading the Kuroor (Authenticated Copies filed with the Statement of Bandihally) to the Amildar under the same date, and the remarks in the accounts quoted from in Col: 14 I am clearly of opinion that the 6 villages alienated under the same Sanad are of a mixed nature, viz, religious charitable and personal. This village and 3 others i e, Bandihally, Chikmuttkur and Botenahally are dedicated to the charities and religious purposes contemplated in the Sanad and Tasdeek Books quoted in col. 11 and 14, while 2 others viz Doddamattkoor and Beergonahally are reserved for the Support of certain Brahmins living in an Agrahar at Sreerangapatam. I have already expressed my opinion that the first 4 villages are religious and charitable, while the two latter must be treated as personal — For further details on this point I beg a reference to the Register of Bandihally.

2. All items of revenue, including Abkari etc are expressely alienated: with the single — exception of Sandal.

Sir,

In reply to your letter No. 11817/L.R.361-18-6 dated 15th March 1919, enquiring whether Belatur Srinivasa Iyengar and others claiming arrears of Vritti amount, have alienated their shares of the vrittis in the Inam villages of the Damodar Dass Saib's charities, I have the honour to state that the Amildar of Kunigal reports that the vrittis have not been alienated.

2. I may add that the petitioners and their forefathers had leased the lands to Hussain Sab of Nittur for definite periods as can be seen from the documents enclosed in the file.

3. The resumption of Dodmatkur and Beergonahally Villages by the Deputy Commissioner in 1901 was approved in Government Order No.R5791-3/631-02 dated 31st December 1904 and it has been observed in Government Order 720-1/M.F.74-96 dated 17th December 1897 that the alienation by Junnabai and Subhadrabai, of the above inam villages to 9 Brahmins was illegal as the grant was personal.

4. Since the villages themselves have been resumed to Government on the ground that the gifts to the forefathers of the petitioners were not valid, it cannot now be held that petitioners are entitled to the continuance of the income from the villages.

5. The vernacular file of records ending with the Tumkur Sub ision Officer's O.C.205/19-20 dated 1st December 1919 is resubmitted for reference.

Order No.
Dated Bangalore, the 27th April 1920.

By a Command issued in 1906, Dharma

Doss Sait was granted six villages as Sarvamanya for the support of certain charities in Bandihalli and Birgonahalli on the understanding that any sum remaining after meeting the expenses of the charities might be used by the grantee for his personal benefit. At the Inam Settlement held in 1871, the six villages were severally settled as hereunder:--

Bolenahalli and Lakkasettipur:-- As Devadaya grants for the support of certain Temples.

Chikmudkur and Bandihalli:-- As Dharmadaya grants for the support of the Chattram and other charities.

Dodmudkur and Birgonahalli:- As personal grants but un-enfranchised.

2. In the year 1897, it was reported to the Government that the objects of the Devadaya and Dharmadaya grants were not being satisfactorily fulfilled, and that the un-enfranchised personal inams had been alienated. The Government thereupon issued the order dated 17th December 1897, read above, directing that the four villages forming the Devadaya and Dharmadaya inams should be taken over under the direct management of the Government in the Muzrai Department and administered on behalf of the Institutions to which they had been endowed, and in this order it was also observed that the alienations of the two un-enfranchised personal inams were invalid; In consequence thereupon the villages were resumed to the Government by the Deputy -- Commissioner and the resumption was confirmed by Government ~~xxxxx~~ in their Order No.R.5791-3/631-03-2 dated 31st December 1904.

3. At the time of the Inam settlement, nine Brahmans were in receipt of -- annual cash grants of 18 pagodas each --- (Rs.62-5-9) out of the proceeds of the two villages of Doddudkur and Birgondahalli --- which were treated as personal inams. Subsequently, in the year 1879, Jamuna Bayi, (grand-daughter) and Subadra Bayi, (widow of a brother of Damodar Dass Sah) assigned away to certain ~~the~~ Brahmans the lands of not only Doddudkur and Birgondahalli, but also of -- Bolenahalli (Devadaya) and Chickmudkur -- (Dharmadaya) villages in commutation of the the cash grants till then paid to them.

4. As a result of the assumption of ~~the~~ management of the Devadaya and ~~the~~ Dharmadaya Inam villages for the exclusive benefit of the religious and ~~the~~ charitable institutions ~~to~~ on behalf of which they ~~have~~ had been enjoyed, and of the resumption of the two personal inam villages of Doddudkur and Birgondahalli ~~in~~ consequence of the unlawful alienations thereof, the petitioners ~~have~~ lost the lands assigned to them in the villages by Jamunabai and Subadrabai in 1879, ~~and~~ but they have now come forward with a prayer for the payment of the arrears of ~~their~~ their allowances and the continuance of the village themselves which they had enjoyed before.

5. So much of the villages of Bolenahalli and Chickmudkur as are resumed, these are Devadaya and Dharmadaya grants and the assignment of the lands thereof to the petitioners in 1879, was an act of unauthorized alienation contrary to Law and the petitioners have no manner of right to any grant in cash or in the shape of land from these villages.

6. For can petitioners be entitled to any writti in the villages of Dodmedkur and Bijnahalli, as these villages themselves have been resumed to Government, ~~on~~ the result of the resumption being an extinguishment of all rights formerly enjoyed by writtidars.

7. The claims of the petitioners are therefore rejected.
